No. 2 of 1856, repealed by No. 3 of 1906.

No. 3 of 1856.

To make provision for the lighting of the City of Victoria.

[12th June, 1856.]

Short title.

1. The Victoria (Lighting) Ordinance, 1856.

Provision of lamp posts and lamps. *

2. The Director of Public Works shall cause a sufficient number of irons or posts for the lighting of the streets, roads, ways, and public thoroughfares of the City of Victoria to be provided, and to be set up, fixed, or erected in all suitable situations for such lighting, and either in any of the said streets, roads, ways, and thoroughfares, or in any close adjacent thereto, or upon or against the wall of any house or building, or the side of any wall or fence, or elsewhere, as he may think proper; and he shall also cause to be provided, and put and affixed upon the said irons and posts, such a number of lamps, and of such sizes and sorts respectively, as may be found requisite for the lighting of the said streets, roads, ways, and thoroughfares respectively.

[s. 3, rep. No. 50 of 1911.]

Extension of laws relating to removal of fixtures and chattels to lamps. *

4. The laws relating to the removing, taking, carrying away, or stealing of fixtures and chattels respectively shall be interpreted to apply to the removing, taking, carrying away, or stealing of the said irons, posts, and lamps; and the property of and in all such articles shall be deemed to be vested in the Director of Public Works for all the purposes of any proceedings, civil or criminal, in relation thereto.

Penalty for wilfully extinguishing lamp. †

5. Every person who wilfully extinguishes the light of any such lamp, or wilfully injures, displaces, or damages any such lamp or any other of the said articles, shall, on conviction thereof before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding 50 dollars, in addition to the full amount of the damage and all incidental costs and expenses.

* As amended by No. 50 of 1911 and No. 51 of 1911.
† As amended by No. 50 of 1911, No. 51 of 1911 and No. 22 of 1912.

Apprehension without warrant. *

6. It shall be lawful for any person witnessing the commission of an offence against section 4 to seize the said offender, and to deliver him to any constable or to a Magistrate; and no warrant shall be in any case necessary to justify the apprehension of any such offender.

Satisfaction for damage other than wilful.

7. When any damage or injury has been occasioned to any such article by any person otherwise than wilfully, and such person has not made satisfaction for the same, it shall be the duty of a Magistrate, on complaint thereof made, to order and compel the said person to make full satisfaction for the amount of such damage or injury, together with all incidental costs and expenses.

Summary procedure. †

8. All proceedings before a Magistrate under this Ordinance, except as provided by section 5, shall be had, and the payment of all pecuniary penalties, costs, and damages shall be enforced, according to the law governing the summary jurisdiction of Magistrates.

[s. 9, rep. No. 50 of 1911.]
